The Chester Decorative Antiques & Art Fair returns to the Grandstand Pavilion at Chester Racecourse from 10 – 12 February 2023.

'We're always just in time for Valentine's Day,' says organiser Sue Ede, 'and you can be sure of finding a very special gift from our specialist dealers offering everything from traditional art and antiques to interior design pieces, jewellery, collector's items and so much more.'

Among the regular returning dealers will be local Chester furniture specialist Melody Antiques, Rowles Fine Art from Ludlow with fine late 19th and 20th century paintings, watercolours and sculpture, and Church Street Antiques from Altrincham with designer interior pieces including sofas and mirrors.

Says Margaret Melody: 'Chester is our favourite fair. We've been exhibiting at the Racecourse for more than 25 years and it's a great opportunity to catch up with old customers from across Cheshire and North Wales. I've been acquiring a great deal of top-rate stock and I'm looking forward to the spring season.'

Prices range from less than £20 for small items of silver and unusual collectables to more than £50,000 for the finest works of art.

The fair runs daily and includes a restaurant for light lunches and refreshments.
