Pavilions of Harrogate Antiques Fair Returns to the Yorkshire Showground

Nine months after the previous event, art and antiques specialists from across the north of England are looking forward to the return of The Pavilions of Harrogate Decorative Antiques & Fine Art Fair at The Great Yorkshire Showground, from 30th October – 1st November 2020.

For organiser Sue Ede of Cooper Events and the forty-plus regular exhibitors, it's been a long wait: 'This will be our first major event following the pandemic and we're all looking forward to returning to Yorkshire. We have a huge following of collectors and since the end of August, they've been asking when the fair will be back. People have a great thirst for art and antiques and have missed the chance to buy and browse.'

Decorative pieces on sale at the fair.

She continued: 'Of course, when we return, all the necessary rules and regulations will be in place to ensure we are complying with the latest guidelines in the aftermath of the pandemic.'

Antique furniture from Melody Antiques

The fair is widely regarded as one of the premier events in Yorkshire. It first ran at the Pavilions of Harrogate in the early 1990's and has been a regular fixture ever since, attracting collectors from across the country and far beyond. With a vast range of high-quality pieces for sale, at prices from £20 to £20,000, the fair has something for everyone. Several Yorkshire dealers always take part, including several from Harrogate.
