

THE PAVILIONS OF HARROGATE DECORATIVE, ANTIQUES & ART FAIR

Railway Road, Great Yorkshire Showground, Harrogate HG2 8NZ
27 – 29 January 2023

Antiques for Sustainability at The Pavilions of Harrogate Antiques Fair

A display of superb antique furniture belonging to one of Yorkshire's leading antiques specialists, Elaine Phillips Antiques, will be a major attraction at The Pavilions of Harrogate Decorative Antiques & Fine Art Fair, 27 -29 January 2023.

With a history going back to the 1960's, Elaine Phillips Antiques were formerly based in Harrogate town centre for many years. Today, Elaine's daughter, Louise Phillips, runs the family business from premises near Leyburn and sells to clients across the country. Louise also provides a complete interior design service. Louise also holds the post of Chairman of the British Antique Dealers' Association (BADA).

Among exhibits belonging to Elaine Phillips Antiques will be fine set of late eighteenth century ladderback Lancashire country dining chairs, a very fashionable and useful large 19th century oak farmhouse table and a fine and rare 17th century oak wall cupboard.

Elaine Phillips Antiques at the Pavilions of Harrogate Fair

The popular Pavilions of Harrogate Decorative, Antiques & Art Fair features more than 45 specialist dealers offering for sale a wide range of high-quality exhibits encompassing rare and decorative pieces from the from 1600 to the present day.

*A rare German Studio Pottery salt-glazed charger decorated in sgraffito with a stylised design depicting 'George slaying the dragon'. 41cm across and further enhanced with traditional enamels. Signed Wim Mühlendyck and dated 1974.
From John Newton Antiques*

Organiser Sue Ede from Cooper Fairs: 'Antiques have proved to be the most sustainable of all kinds of interior design and decor. Collectors take enormous pleasure in adding rare and unique pieces to their home, bringing charm, character and practicality to their day-to-day surroundings.'

The Fair offers everything from fine paintings to Persian rugs, garden statuary, traditional and mid-century modern furniture to eye-catching, ceramics, glass and objets d'art.

Among the many exhibitors will be Harrogate-based Sutcliffe Fine Art and Walker Galleries, specializing in a fine selection of traditional and contemporary works of art by both local and international artists.

Continued.../

Art Deco ceramics, glass and silver will be on display from Brian Ashbee and Wes Wotruba Antiques; John Newton Antiques offers 20th century studio pottery and porcelain; Garret & Hurst promise a superb collection of French and European bronze sculpture, and Highland Antiques will specialise in antique silver.

Showing furniture and decorative pieces will be Mark Buckley Antiques late Victorian and early 20th century walnut furniture and bronzes, and Melody Antiques with country furniture and collectables.

Among other exhibitors will be Shapiro & Co specialising in 19th and 20th century British and European jewellery and silver including pieces by Faberge; Plaza with 19th and 20th century jewellery; Kind George Antiques with larger interior design pieces for the home and garden, and Julia Drinkhall with country house collector's pieces and small furniture.

Public Admission is £5.00.

Open Times: Friday - Sunday 11am-5.00pm

The fair is organised by Cooper Events, Somerset TA8 1BU. Tel: 01278 784912.

www.cooperevents.com. info@cooperevents.com

Facebook: coopersantiques.fairs Twitter: @CooperAntiques

ADVERTISING, PRESS INFORMATION & IMAGES

Duncan Phillips, Somerset TA19 0LR.

Tel: UK 01460 359782. Duncan@antiquespr.com \ www.antiquespr.com