

The CHESTER Decorative ANTIQUES & ART FAIR

County GRANDSTAND,
CHESTER RACECOURSE, CHESTER CH1 2LY

17th – 19th September 2021

Chester's Popular Racecourse Antiques Fair Returns

Art and antiques collectors across the Northwest and Wales will be looking forward to returning to the famous Chester Decorative Antiques & Art Fair at the county Grandstand, Chester Racecourse from 17th – 19th September.

This popular event features a host of familiar dealers joined by a several home interior specialists. Decorative antiques and twentieth century designer items will feature amongst a wide range of fascinating art and antiques for contemporary and traditional homes.

Sue explains: 'Today's antiques buyers want a greater variety of objects and especially more twentieth century and decorative pieces. Classic antiques will, of course, still feature, together with traditional silver, ceramics, sculpture and collector's items, but we are looking forward to specialists in classic vintage pieces, Art Deco, Arts & Crafts and Mid-Century Modern'.

Decorative art and antiques at Chester Fair

The fair will feature exhibits from £25 to £25,000, from decorative furniture and mirrors to classic Georgian and Victorian country pieces, English silver, oil and watercolour paintings, pottery, porcelain, glass and jewellery.

Fine antique oak dresser from Melody Antiques

More than forty dealers will be exhibiting and once again the fair will take place over three floors of the County Grandstand building

Among the local specialists will be Mike Melody Antiques who for many years owned a highly successful antiques shop in the city. Mike and his wife Margaret now trade primarily from antiques fairs and always look forward to exhibiting in their home town with their extensive range of traditional town and country furniture.

Continued.../

Rowles Fine Art from Ludlow return with a collection of fine late 19th and 20th century paintings, watercolours and sculpture, while church Street Antiques from Altrincham offer a wide range of chic designer interior pieces including sofas and mirrors. The fair also includes several silver and jewellery specialists; Plaza, Thomas Glower from Shrewsbury, Stephen Kalms Antiques from London, Billy Rae from Scotland and Shapiro & Co from London.

Other specialists include Jo Bennett Fine Paintings featuring northern artists such as Geoffrey Key; Solo Antiques with Art Nouveau and Art Deco glass and sculpture, and Garret & Hurst with 19th and early 20th century French sculpture. Roger de Ville returns as usual with rare early English pottery.

The Chester Decorative Antiques & Art Fair

County Grandstand,

Chester Racecourse CH1 2LY

11am-5pm daily. Entry £5.00.

The fair is organised by: Cooper Events, Somerset TA8 1BU. Tel: 01278 784912.

Complimentary Tickets from www.cooperevents.com

Digital & Social Media Links:

www.cooperevents.com

info@cooperevents.com

Facebook: coopersantiques.fairs

Twitter: @CooperAntiques

Images

Fine paintings on the stand of Rowles Fine Art.

Super set of four silver goblets by Stuart Devlin from Stephen Kalms Antiques

1930's opal and diamond ring from Plaza.

A rare Staffordshire silver lustre jug, commemorating the Duke of Wellington on horseback with raised sword. On the reverse (shown) are masonic symbols recording the Wellington family's involvement with the Irish Lodge No. 80. £900.

From Roger de Ville